Moderator: Colby Sellers, Associate Director of Financial Aid, Western Illinois University

TUESDAY 9:30 AM - 10:00 AM – BREAK MEZZANINE/VENDOR AREA

TUESDAY 10:00 AM - 11:00 AM – BREAK OUT SESSIONS

Life After Graduate School: CONFERENCE CENTER II Strategies for Achieving Your Financial Goals and Managing Your Debt

This presentation encompasses information that is pertinent to young people as they are about to make the life-changing jump from graduate school to a life as a career oriented professional. During this session we will explore the following life skills topics:

1. Maintaining good credit
2. ABC's of home buying
3. Beginning investing
4. Insurance needs
5. Budgeting after you graduate
6. Managing loans wisely (time permitting)

If you have ever had a student ask you about any of the above topics or you are simply interested in learning more about them to better assist your students in making that transition to the “real world” then this session is just right for you.

Presenter: Thomas J. Ramaeker, Account Executive, Access Group, Inc.

Moderator: D. Denny, Director of Financial Aid, John Wood Community College

Verification Vs. Corrections PLAZA I & II

This session will be a round table discussion covering verification, corrections, updates and adjustments to the information reported on the FAFSA. Learn from the experience of others, share ideas, and ask questions. Take this opportunity to delve into the verification/correction situations affecting your office. This session will target beginning aid counselors and staff, and will also be a good resource as well for intermediate and advanced aid administrators. You don't have to face any critical issue alone!

Presenter: Bryant Anderson, Assistant Dean for Student Affairs, Illinois College of Optometry

Moderator: Rhonda Cors, Vice President of Enrollment Management, MacMurray College

Alternative Loans – Helping Your Students Bridge The Gap

CONFERENCE CENTER IV

Alternative loans are now becoming an essential component of financial aid packages for many students to meet their yearly cost of attendance. This session will offer insights in a panel format to discuss key features, trends, variations and growth in the private loan marketplace. The panelists will also provide strategies for financial aid offices to develop and manage their lenders and alternative loan programs.

Presenters: Kelly Walsh, Director of Business Development-Midwest, Collegiate Funding Services, Craig Ader, Senior Account Executive, Wells Fargo, Amy Wilson, Midwest Marketing Manager, TERI loans

Moderator: Julie Griffin, Student Financial Aid Administrator, College of Law Liaison, University of Illinois Champaign-Urbana

The Technology Pyramid:

RENDEZVOUS ROOM

An Exploration of the Progressive Implementation of Technology in the Financial Aid Office

This session will discuss how the technology pyramid can be used by FAOs to develop a plan to move their aid offices from a paper intensive office to a “web actualized” office, and how it can be used to do things that make the most sense, given the politics and resources that impact the aid office.

Presenters: Mark Evans, Director of Student Financial Aid, Kent State University, Craig Cornell, Director of Student Financial Aid, Bowling Green State University, Elaine Ruse, Director of Student Financial Aid, Youngstown State University, Theodore R. Hallenbeck, Regional Account Executive, Educaid/Wachovia

Moderator: Anastasia Stingley, Regional Account Executive, Educaid

Handling Finances From A Very Early Perspective - A Really Old Hat

PLAZA III

How much is enough? There are many ways to approach this question. As student loan balances continue to grow and credit card balances explode, how will students handle their total indebtedness? This session will approach these issues from a “really old hat” perspective - the principles of handling money from the Bible, the Torah, and the Koran will be shared. Did you know that over 2,200 verses in the Bible deal with finances? How do our religious values influence our students’ daily financial decisions? How can the information found in these resources help? Join us for a “really old hat” perspective.

Presenter: Bob Clement, Director of Student Aid and Student Employment, Southwestern Illinois College

Moderator: Jack Getchel, Director of Student Financial Aid, Lincoln Christian College & Seminary

Illinois Student Assistance Commission Update

AMBASSADOR BALLROOM

This session will provide a comprehensive update on ISAC-administered programs, and the latest legislative and program policy changes. Expanded services available through College Zone, including future implementation of Illinois Mentor will be covered as well as ISAC’s role in partnerships with schools, associations, and community organizations to deliver outreach services.

Presenters: Chris Peterson, Director, Program Services, ISAC, Joanna Dill, Assistant Director, Program Services, ISAC, Rhonda Jachino, Assistant Director, Research, Planning and Policy Analysis, ISAC, Al Hogan, Manager, Client Information Services, ISAC

Moderator: John Jennetten, Chief Program Officer, ISAC

TUESDAY 11:00 AM - 11:30 AM – BREAK

MEZZANINE/VENDOR AREA

TUESDAY 11:30 AM - 12:30 PM – BREAK OUT SESSIONS

Debt Management and Credit Counseling for Graduate Students

CONFERENCE CENTER II

Credit card debt is increasingly becoming a problem for more and more students. From problems with handling credit card usage to “maxing out” on multiple cards to bankruptcy and worse, this issue is affecting students at all types of institutions. This session will examine this emerging issue, how it is impacting students and schools, what is being done about it, and what you can do to address this issue at your institution.

Presenter: Kevin McKeown, Account Executive, USA Funds Services

Moderator: Nancy Calvert, Director of Financial Aid, Southern Illinois University School of Medicine

Revisit the 2003 NASFAA Best Practices session. Review the principles of organizational structure - defining hierarchy, division of labor, and roles. Examine the forces that impact institutional decisions about organizational structure - Enrollment Management philosophy. Compare organizational models that deliver financial aid - One-Stop Shop, Student Financial Services (blend of Financial Aid and Bursar), and virtual aid offices .

Presenter: David B. Gray, President, Financial Aid Services

Moderator: Andrea Johnson, Assistant Director of Financial Aid, Robert Morris College

Getting Involved with ILASFAA PLAZA III

Have you thought about becoming involved with ILASFAA, but you don't know what committee to join or how you can help? ILASFAA has a wide array of committees and activities to provide education, training and professional development opportunities. Without volunteers, ILASFAA would not exist. Whether you are new to financial aid or have been in the field for many years, come learn what ILASFAA has to offer and how you can become involved!

Presenter: Donna Sobie, Director of Financial Aid, Loyola Stritch School of Medicine

Moderator: Sue Ullrick, Coordinator of Financial Aid and Scholarships, Rock Valley Community College

Counseling Students Regarding Teacher Programs, PLAZA I & II
Loan Cancellation and Other Benefits

Learn about model programs of counseling and informational services for students enrolled in teacher education programs; providing current and prospective teacher education students with teacher-related scholarship, grants and loan program information (federal and state); counseling support for students regarding benefits and obligations of programs which have a teaching obligation; use of school-based Web sites, campus Education Department Intranet and list serve and e-mail communications to follow up with recipients regarding the benefits and obligations of their teacher-related financial assistance; and implications of loan consolidation on future loan cancellation benefits.

Presenters: Deborah Curtis, Director of Teacher Education Center, College of Education, Illinois State University, Rebecca Babel, Financial Aid Director, National Louis University
