What contribution do you envision ILASFAA making to the profession?

ILASFAA sets itself up as an integral part of the financial aid profession by providing training and professional development as well as networking opportunities to those in the profession. I envision ILASFAA continuing to provide these very important facets to those in the profession.

How would you support financial aid professionals as we move into the future for ILASFAA?

I believe the future of ILASFAA is to continue to fulfill our mission to provide quality training, professional development, networking opportunities, and effective communication for our membership. As we have learned these last couple years, the format in which we meet our mission may need to change and we need to continue to be flexible. I believe in-person trainings and networking are essential to the success of our profession, but I also understand the need to continue to provide these services if in-person is not an option.

You are the Future of ILASFAA!
THANK YOU FOR YOUR PARTICIPATION IN OUR ILASFAA ELECTIONS!
