What contribution do you envision ILASFAA making to the profession?

I envision ILASFAA providing training opportunities that are easily accessible to all financial aid professionals across the state as well as providing an open method of communication for financial aid support throughout the year.

How would you support financial aid professionals as we move into the future for ILASFAA?

I plan to provide assistance in planning and organizing training opportunities, specifically in the Southern Illinois Region as well as the annual conference, and evaluate feedback from ILASFAA members to determine how we can better support one another.
